About a year ago the scheme was organized, James R Keene and Jesse Hoyt thing its originators. With them were associated Perry H. Smith, George L. Dunlap and Nathan Counth, of Chicago and Z G Sim mons and Judge Howe, of Kenceha. The est in the syndicate Hoyt had a quarter interest and Keene a half The New York end assumed entire direction of the deal. At one They proposed to close out the deal last May, but the attempt did not purchases force up the price and then upload n! Hoyt's partner, began selling right and left, and the market slid away The Chicago owners of one quarter interest in the deal find themselves out from $250 000 to $300,000 each What Keene s and Hoyt s loss preach to accuracy. Large numbers of small speculators of course lest heavily, and not a Pittsburg man, who is out $115,000 to the "gloric party. But it doesn't name the "pointe ' in that ' giorious record." Let us come to certer of pride that the deincoratic party opposed clared the mar a failure? Who now riped from the statute books the last vestige "glorous reco'd' that it sustained Vallan there are the constitutional ments which the democratic party fought with all its might,—who now brags of that? Then there was the attempt to defruid natronal creditors by paying the national debt or pretending to pay it, in greenbacks -but who now feels like pointing with pride' to that attempt? Still further there was the effort proclaimed at the late extra session to wipe out the last vestige of war legislation -hut where is the democrat who wouldn't rather condeal this than boast about it? On > the whole when the glorious record" is examined in detail there is no democrat who will not wisely conclude that the less said about it the better Dr John Buchanan, dean of the colec ing mi-digst college of Phyladelphia, a hogos diploma factory is figuring again in the dis-paiches. It is estimated that over 11,000 of My old tave whom I loved not is this you friendly hand hour voice with a tremble in it None else could understand? My old love whom I loved not After so many years Parting in allence and pain To meet with smiles not tears

My old love whom I loved not Do you regret—not I— That all died out which best were dead Ail lived which could not de Till at the last we meet here

You will leave a name behind you A life sure calm and long But mine will fade from human ear

A lite pane
Just mine will fade from numers
Like a forgotten song
Ton have lived to smile sevenely
Over a grief long done
Ven will die with children round your bed

O kind love whom I loved not O faithful firm and true Did one riend linger near my grave I think it would be you. Could I wish one boart to hold me A little naferon. Could I wish one heart to hold me A flight unforgot, I think swould be that heart of yours My Love—whom I toved not

SIGNS of CATARRH.

No other such loadhsome treacherous an indemining malady curees markind the fifth of our Children due of diseases generated by its Infectious Poison and on fourth of 1 or men and women drag out mirerable exitences from the same cause While asleep the impurities in the notifies are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the langs to poison every part of the system. By Wei De Mayer's Catarrh Cure absorbs the purelent virus and kills the seeds of poison in the farthest parts of the system. It will not only relieve but cortainly cure Catarrh at any strage it is the only remedy which in our judy ment has ever yet roally cured a case of Chronic Catarrh.
